AIMS AND SCOPE

The AUN/SEED-Net Regional Conference on Computer and Information Engineering (RCCIE 2017) is a regional conference for academics, engineers, practitioners and research students to exchange their ideas, techniques, methods, and state-of-the-art applications in the field of Computer and Information Engineering. RCCIE 2017 is hosted by Faculty of Computer Science & Engineering, Ho Chi Minh City University of Technology (HCMUT) and in conjunction with The 11th International Conference on Advanced Computing and Applications (ACOMP2017).

Conference venue: RCCIE 2017 will be held in the main campus of the Bach Khoa University. Located near the heart of Ho Chi Minh City, the hosting university serves as the leading research and education hub for sciences & engineering in the southern area of Vietnam. Ho Chi Minh City is the largest, most populous and fast-growing city in Vietnam.

Conference dates: November 30 to December 01, 2017.

PUBLICATION

All accepted papers on RCCIE 2017 will be appeared as a special track in ACOMP 2017 Proceedings, published by the Conference Publishing Services (CPS). All the presented papers are to be submitted to the IEEE Xplore and IEEE CS Digital Library. Selected papers will be published in ASEAN Engineering Journal.

IMPORTANT DATES

Abstract submission deadline	June 25, 2017
Paper submission deadline	June 30, 2017
Notification of acceptance	August 25, 2017
